1. H.R. 2199– District of Columbia Police Coordination Amendment Act of 2001

H.R. 2199 — District of Columbia Police Coordination Amendment Act of 2001 (Norton)

Order of Business: The resolution is scheduled to be considered under a motion to suspend the rules on Tuesday, September 25th.

Summary: Amends current law to permit any Federal law enforcement agency to enter into a cooperative agreement with the D.C. Police Department to assist the Department in carrying out crime prevention and law enforcement activities if deemed appropriate by the Police Chief and the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Cost to Taxpayers: A CBO score is not available, but it is believed the bill would have little if any impact on the Federal budget.

Does the Bill Create New Federal Programs or Rules?: No.

Constitutional Authority: A committee report citing constitutional authority is unavailable.
